Dear Candidates:

We'd like to take this opportunity to congratulate you on your decision to seek public office. Your willingness to serve in a position of public trust strengthens the foundations of our democratic system and further provides more choices for our voters when they visit the polls this November.

As you are probably aware, the Commonwealth Election Commission serves a vital role as the disinterested guardian of the democratic franchise in the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands. The Commonwealth Election Commission must ensure a fair, orderly and free election. It must be indifferent to the outcome of this election or any other election.

In keeping our candidates for public office informed on numerous requirements and in particular, the election process, we have prepared this brief pamphlet containing information that we feel may be helpful to you in the coming months. While we tried to cover every aspect possible in preparation for the upcoming special election, we suggest that you also review Title 1 Division 6 of the Commonwealth Code. If you need further assistance, please do not hesitate to let us know.

As we enter this campaign season, the Commissioners and staff of the Commonwealth Election Commission join me in extending our warmest regards to you.

Respectfully,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Robert A. Guerrero".

ROBERT A. GUERRERO
Executive Director

COMMONWEALTH ELECTION COMMISSION

Qualifications for Elective Offices

The candidate filing process enables qualified individuals to have their names appear on the general election ballots. Nominating Petitions forms may be obtained from the Office of the Election Commission on Beach Road, Susupe, Saipan or from a Commissioner on Tinian or Rota. Nominating petitions may be circulated by the candidates themselves or by a person chosen by the candidates to circulate the nominating petitions.

Signature and Filing Fee Requirements

Before being filed, nominations papers must be signed by a specified number of registered voters who are qualified to vote for the office sought. The candidate is responsible for ensuring that there are sufficient signatures of qualified voters on his/her nomination papers. The number of required signatures and the amount of fee for filing varies according to the office sought. (See table below.)

Office	Required Signatures	Filing Fee
Governor/Lieutenant Governor	200	$500
U.S. Delegate	200	$500
Attorney General	200	$500
Mayor	5% or 100, whichever is less	$250
Senator	5% or 100, whichever is less	$250
Representative	5% or 50, whichever is less	$100
Municipal Council	5% or 100, whichever is less	$100
Board of Education	5% or 100, whichever is less	$100

To be valid, each signer must live and be registered in the senatorial/election/municipal district from which the candidate seeks election; must sign no more nomination petition papers than there are available seats; and must include his/her name, signature (as it appears on the Affidavit of Registration of the voter), date of birth and election district for verification.

Candidates are advised to file their nomination papers early and to obtain more signatures than required in anticipation of invalid signature or unqualified voters. Submissions after the 90-day submission period, submissions by facsimile transmission or submissions by mail shall not be considered and/or processed.

All completed nominating petitions must be submitted to the Office of the Election Commission on Beach Road, Susupe, Saipan no later than the close of business day 90 days prior to the election day. The Commission may refuse to accept for filing any petition that, on its face, fails to comply with the requirements of Title 1 Division 6 of the Commonwealth Code, applicable rules and regulations, promulgated manuals or established Election Commission policies.

Any recognized political party may nominate candidates for senator or representative by having its chairperson and secretary certify to the Commission the names of the party's candidates on or before the 90 day submission date. This certification must accompany the nominating petitions.

Except for the requirement of recognized political party certification, nonpartisan and independent candidates must submit their petitions in the same manner as those for candidates for recognized political candidates.

All candidates for election office must submit, together with the nomination papers, signed statements attesting that they are qualified to seek and hold office and that they have complied with all laws, rules and regulations governing candidacy for election to public office.

Filing fees shall be paid at the Department of Finance or at any of its authorized collection points. The Election Commission is not an authorized collection point and therefore, cannot receive monies on behalf of the CNMI Government.
